

Centerville School NEWSLETTER

March 8, 2019

READING CELEBRATIONS - Centerville students continue to Spring into Reading with snow coming down! Classrooms welcomed Guest Readers today as they shared favorite books to celebrate the joy of reading. The Goal Assembly revealed our amazing Tigers have earned more than 300 AR points, roaring ahead to reach the 1200-point reading goal by the end of March. Students are invited to an afterschool Reading Party on Tuesday with book activities, friends, and lots of reading fun! When you come into school on next Friday, you will be in awe of the craziest socks ever! Students and staff will be wearing crazy socks on SOCK HOP Day to promote reading.

PTC- Yahoo, the school carnival will be Friday, March 15, from 6:00 to 8:00 PM. Carnival flyers were sent home yesterday with information. The PTC Boosters are busy planning a fun family evening. Please join the fun and volunteer to help; run a booth, help set up or clean up, donate a bingo prize (white elephant or goody), and spend time with friends and neighbors. Students who return a completed sign up form to the office by Tuesday will get a sweet treat!

BOOKFAIR - The Scholastic book fair was a huge success. Offering a great selection, sales topped $1654. The profit of $827.38 will provide new books for classroom libraries. If you were unable to attend the fair, you still have an opportunity to purchase books online through March 12. Visit: <http://www.scholastic.com/bf/centervilleschool> to find a large selection.

SPRING AHEAD - Don't be late! Remember to set your clocks ahead 1 hour, as daylight savings time begins on Sunday, March 10th.
